

Press release
For immediate publication

Nearly 1,000 jobs up for grabs at La Ronde!

Candidates have till February 26 to apply online at www.laronde.com

Montréal, Thursday February 11, 2010 – Planning ahead for next season – which will see the unveiling of a new extreme thrill rollercoaster – La Ronde is launching a recruitment campaign to fill close to 1,000 jobs. La Ronde is looking for candidates with a strong sense of responsibility and commitment to customer service who are courteous, considerate and enthusiastic!

Four hundred of the jobs being offered are directly affiliated with La Ronde, which is seeking boutique clerks, restaurant workers and customer service attendants. Customer service attendants will operate rides and ensure that the park is always clean and spotless. Candidates with specific qualifications are also sought for customer relations, ticket sales, parking, and prevention and security positions. Prior experience is not required, but candidates must be 16 years of age or older as of May 29, 2010. Approximately 500 other positions are available with the more than 20 franchises that operate on-site at La Ronde, including Autoclic, Concessions Québec, La Crémère, McDonald's, Mira Amusement, Queues de castor and Subway.

Candidates interested in rewarding working conditions in a stimulating environment are invited to visit the "Jobs" page of the La Ronde website: www.laronde.com. Candidates must apply before February 26, 2010. As a new feature this year, candidates targeting jobs with specific franchisees can apply for them directly on La Ronde's site.

In September, La Ronde announced that it would be launching in May 2010, a new, awe-inspiring, half-suspended rollercoaster above lac des Dauphins, which is made possible by a major investment by Six Flags Inc. To promote this new addition, La Ronde has embarked upon a promotion as thrilling as the new rollercoaster itself. Since September and until further notification, everyone who buys a 2010 season passport will be invited to be the first to experience this high thrill coaster, by boarding the ride before it opens to the general public. Along with this privilege, season passport holders will receive exclusive offers valued at more than $200. Season passports are available online at www.laronde.com.

About Six Flags: La Ronde is the property of Six Flags, Inc., a publicly-traded corporation (SIXFQ) headquartered in New York City and the world's largest regional theme park company with 20 parks across the United States, Mexico and Canada.